

Disciplinary/Corrective Measures for Students

The Board of Education authorizes certain disciplinary/corrective measures to be used when deemed necessary by school personnel. Such measures shall include but be not necessarily limited to the following:

1. Restriction of participation in or attendance at extra-curricular activities.
2. Counseling for the student and possibly his/her parents.
3. Notification of parents or guardians of the misbehavior by mail or telephone.
4. Conference with parents or guardians of the misbehaving student.
5. Expulsion by the Board of Education for the remainder of the semester, or in the case of a weapons violation, for a calendar year.
6. Short-term suspension (1-5 days)
7. Long-term suspension (6-19 days)
8. Reassignment to another location in the district.
9. In-School suspension
10. Probation
11. Rearrangement of the student's schedule
12. Confiscation of inappropriate materials
13. Detention
14. Emergency exclusion up to 5 days or until a certain danger/situation passes, whichever comes first.
15. Conference with the student
16. Notification, when appropriate/legal, to legal authorities of the situation/event(s).
17. School Work Detention

It should be noted that student misbehavior could result in more than one of these corrective measures being applied.

Corrective measures shall be carried out within the parameters of Due Process and expressed laws of the state and constitution of the United States.

Adopted: July 10, 2000

Reviewed: August 11, 2014